

after transformation, the equivalent system may have a new pole-zero count it is possible that $n' < m'$ then $m' - n'$ branches may come from poles at infinity real-axis locus, breakaway, imaginary-axis crossing, and arrival / departure angles must all be re-checked on the equivalent system